

Obituary

Died: Thursday, January 17, 2019

Claire Lynch, 84, of Carmel, Indiana, former longtime resident of Union City, passed away on January 17, 2019.

Claire was a graduate of Ball State University and a business teacher at Ansonia, Ohio for many years. She won numerous statewide awards during her career. Claire and her late husband, Charles, owned and operated Lynch Supply Company in Union City and Sydney, Ohio.

She is survived by her three sisters and several nieces and nephews. Gail and Brett Pheffer are special family who cared for her during her time in Carmel. There will be no services per her wishes.

Online condolences may be expressed at www.reichardfh.com

Service Summary

- Service details not available -